RED BANK

R— means read! Reading introduces you to worlds you may never personally know. It opens your mind to a world of opinions and makes you decide what's best for you.

E— means endure! Not matter what adversity comes to you, you have the strength to face it and endure!

D— is duty! You have a duty to your parents and teachers. Without them, you'd be nothing. Because of them, you are where you are today. You owe them to carry on to the next generation.

B— is behavior. Act like a graduate. Don't cheat on or betray your parents' instructions.

A— means adulthood. Believe it or not, you are tomorrow's citizen of the U.S.A. Vote, get involved beyond your private world! be interested in the world.

N— means NO! Dare to say this word to things that you don't believe in! Dare to take a stand! Dare to be different! Dare to say NO!

K— means KEEP. Keep your memories of high school. Keep what you learned. Keep your ideals and ideas close to you. Keep them as you become an adult.

You are a graduate of Redbank Valley High School. You have accomplished a lot. Thank those who have helped you along the way; congratulate yourself for having "made it"; be true to yourself, and as Shakespeare said, "Thou canst not then be false to any other man."

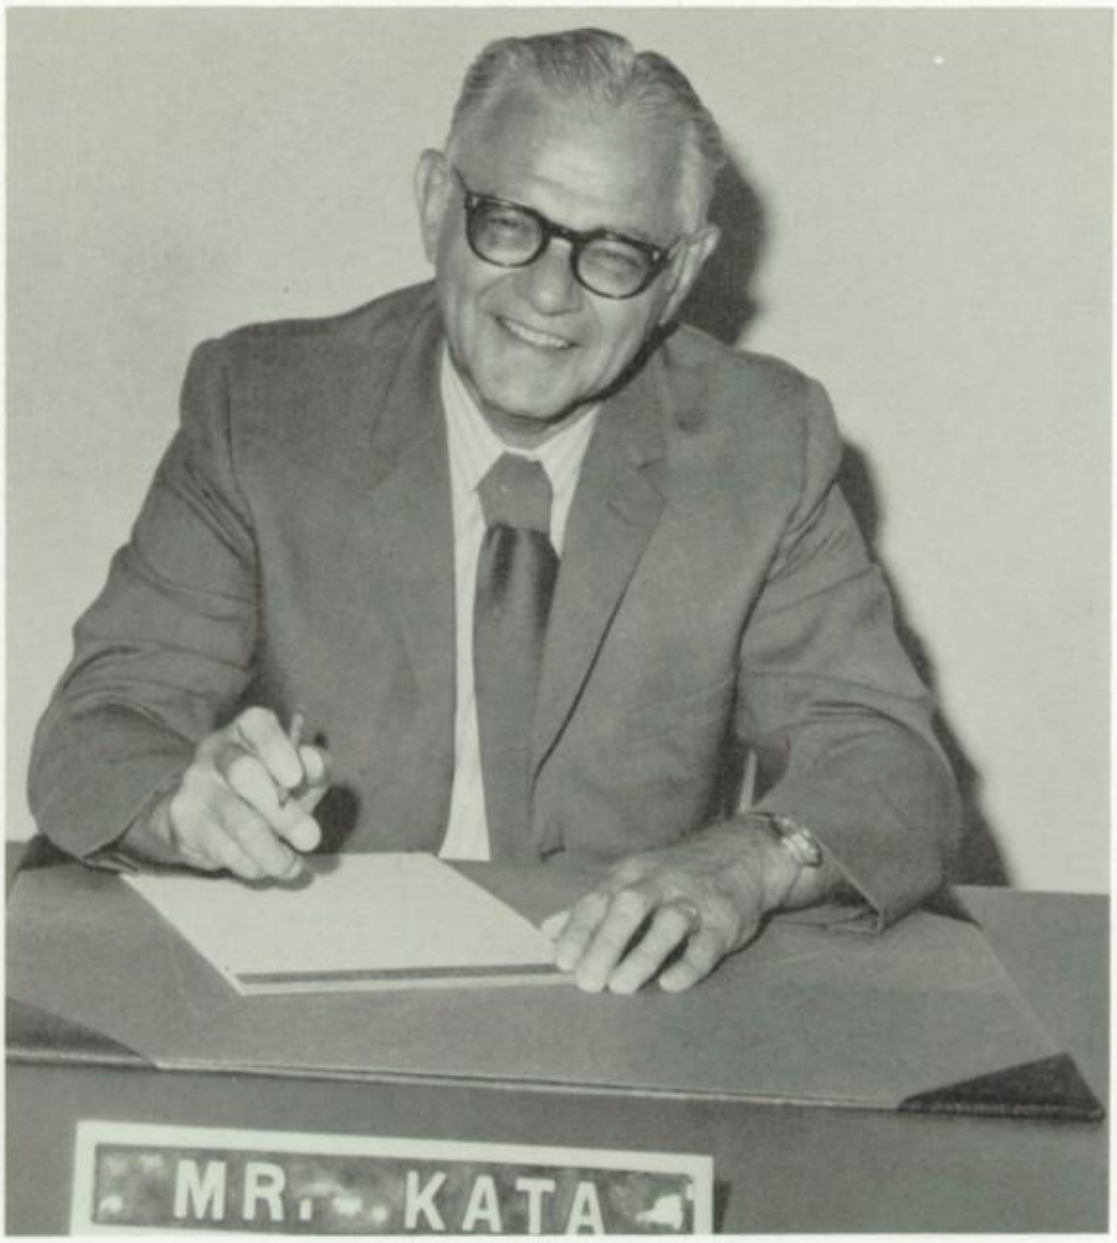
In Memory



Mr. Joseph J. Kata

Mr. Kata was born March 4, 1910 in Ambridge, Pennsylvania. He came to New Bethlehem in 1933 and remained here until his death on February 19, 1973. When serving in the U.S. Army during World War II, he participated in the Battle of the Bulge. He was a graduate of Clarion State Teachers College and president of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association. When he came to Redbank, he did more for our athletic program than anyone thought was possible. In 1933 his football team started an undefeated streak that lasted 4 years. The team had won 37 consecutive games. Mr. Kata served as principal until 1961 when he became supervising principal. He has been the chief school administrator for the past 12 years.

Since the death of Mr. Kata, a number of students have shown their respect and admiration for this man by suggesting that we buy flowers and memorialize this edition of the school yearbook to him. Like a lot of students who wrote to us said — "We may not have liked him because he was the boss — when no one else could, he would keep us in line, but I think that each and everyone of us should remember that he was a great man and he put a lot of unselfish hours of work into this school system." We, the student body of R.V.H.S. will not forget that he helped build this school into what it is today and we will remember Mr. Joseph J. Kata.

Umm, Umm, Good!

Don't look now!

There's a time to be serious.

Foreign Exchange Students
Daniel Plavney & Napoleo Correos

Daniel Plavney left for Lima, Peru, on June 26, 1972. During his visit, he stayed in the home of Senor Oscar Penny and his three sons, Cucho, Roberto, and Felipe. He liked the people very much and enjoyed playing soccer, going to parties, and playing handball. His most exciting experience was his tour to Machu Pichu, the lost city of the Incans. The foods were very spicy, but in time he learned to enjoy the food almost as much as at home.

Napoleo Correos de Barros Neto

Napoleo Correos de Barros Neto came to Redbank Valley on September 22, 1972. At first "Nap" had trouble with the language, but in time we all understood him very well. We will never forget his antics on the wrestling mat. He liked hot dogs, snow, wrestling, and of course, American girls. It was a great loss to Redbank Valley when Nap finally left. Redbank will never forget, or never have another exchange student like Nap.

Dan and Nap perform an experiment in chemistry lab.

Foreign Exchange Students
Greta Shaffer Betina Hahmann

On June 28, 1972, Greta Shaffer left for a two-month stay in Sao Paulo, Brazil. June, July and August are the winter months in South America, but the temperature in Brazil averaged around 80°. While Greta was there, she visited 5 major cities, and met many interesting people. She enjoyed living in the home of Nagib Mirhej with her three sisters and someday hopes to return for another visit.

On December 18, 1972, Greta received Betina Hahmann also from Sao Paulo, into her home. Betina, or Tina as she preferred to be called, left many happy memories with her friends here. During her 3 month stay in the United States, she particularly liked snow and ice skating, but not cold weather. She also liked the food; her trips to Washington, DC, New York City and Chicago; and the friends she made here at Redbank. Tina proved to be a perfect representative for friendly relations between our two countries.

Tina enjoyed typing in English instead of Spanish.

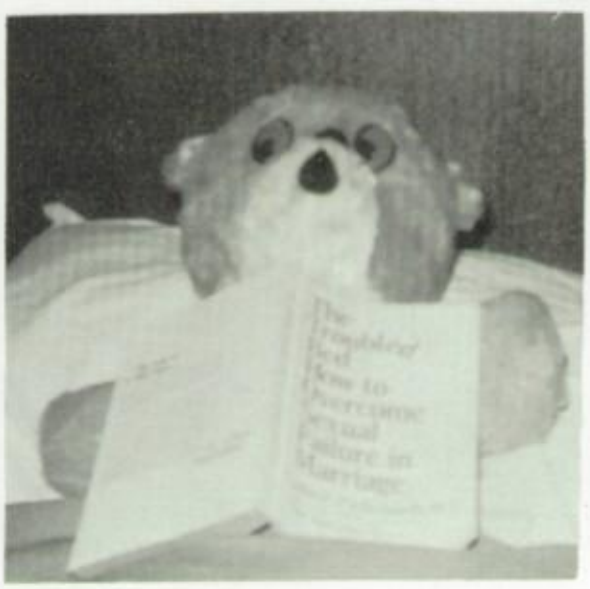
Dan Plavney, Greta Shaffer, Nap, Tina, and Mrs. Filson.

Washington Memories

I couldn't eat my sandwich 'cause my baloney smiled at me.

How ya gonna keep'em down on the farm after they've seen D.C.?

Just listen to that bed skreech.



I wouldn't do a thing like that.

Take a drink of "firewater", Freeda.

Oh, Dougie! Oh, Jody! — I'm ALICE!!!

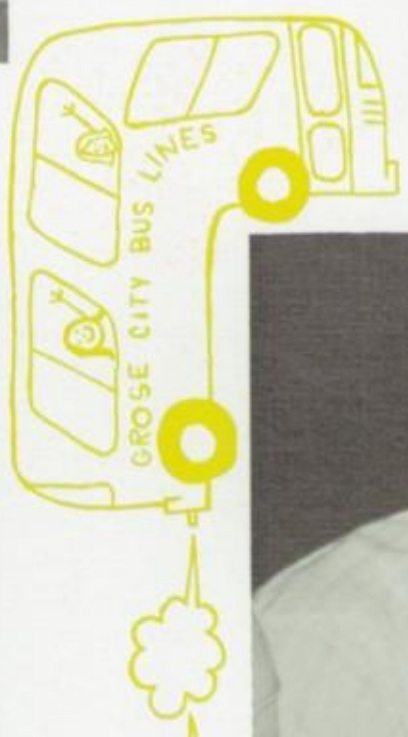
Does she or doesn't she . . . hope so.

Happiness is an orgy.

Results of the "firewater".

Thought you surprised me, didn't ya?

Good to the last drop.



Just a little bit of "Southern" hospitality.

How sweet he is!

Let me in . . . my teeth are floating!

The 1972 Homecoming Queen: Kay Hopper

Homecoming 1972

Rain and mud contributed their share to Homecoming 1972 as Brockway defeated Redbank 6-0. Last year's Queen, Debbie Minich, crowned Kay Hopper to reign as this year's Queen. Kay's court included: Lou Ann Hilliard, Robin Shaffer, LouAnn Carlson, Debbie Swartfager, and Sandy Chandler.

Sandy Chandler, LouAnn Carlson, Kay Hopper, Lou Ann Hilliard, Robin Shaffer, Debbie Swartfager.

Teena Harmon entertains her mystery man.

As Joni returns for her third helping of cookies, Sandy looks up in amazement.

After many difficult hours, the decorations begin to take shape.

Senior High Prom
Old Fashioned Love Song

On Saturday, February 10, Redbank Valley held its annual Senior High Prom. Music for the prom was provided by "Phweet Phweew". The gymnasium was decorated to a theme of "Old Fashioned Love Song", and hints of Valentine's Day. Joni Sarakon, student council president, crowned Russ Hinderliter and Darla Adams king and queen, and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Dean reigned as prince and princess. Other members of the court were seniors: Lydia Trice and Andy Shumaker, Kay Hopper and Sam Schawl, Randy Bain and Darlene George; Juniors: Denny Gruver and Diane Rearick; Sophomores: Andy Palaggo and Kathy Gruver; and Freshmen: Jerry Myers and Tami Burford.

Natalie and Peter White had no complaints about "toe-tramping".

The couples jived throughout the night.

Natalie White looks on with awe as Joni Sarakon crowns the queen.

Princess Patty Dean, Queen Darla Adams, King Russ Hinderliter, and Prince Dan Dean.

The Perfect Idiot

Jack Gareis was appropriately cast as the idiot when the Senior Class presented THE PERFECT IDIOT on November 11th. Jack used his hypnotism to tutor the star athlete, Puff (who was played by Randy Bain), so he wouldn't fail his tests and be ineligible for the season's biggest track meet. Jack raised the grades of all his friends involved — enabling them to get into college. Sixteen seniors participated in the play which Mrs. Helen Mogle and Mrs Mary Conrad directed again this year. The play was a great success with many thanks going to everyone involved.

Play cast: (On Floor) Alan Wyant, Theresa Allison, Lynn Evans, Randy Bain. On Couch: Sharon Wile, Kathy Plyler, Jack Gareis, Debbie Space, Don McCauley, Doug Tyger. Standing: Mrs. Helen Mogle, Keith Shoemaker, Mrs. Mary Conrad.

Senior Prom—Pieces of April

Row 1: King Kim Smith, Queen Janice Gallagher. Row 2: Kathy Plyler, Randy Hopper, Melia Reddinger, Doug Tyger, Diane Crissman, Russ Hinderliter, Linda Brown, Rod Huffman.

Who's gonna lead this time?

Mingle, mingle, mingle.

We've got it all together.

'73—a very good year.

Call 275-1054 for a date for the Prom.

What a bind!

Pieces of April

On May 4th from 9 till 12, the Seniors held their Prom to the theme of "Pieces of April". The gym was decorated with swans, lilies, and a small bridge with a fountain in the middle. Kim Smith and Janice Gallagher were crowned as King and Queen with other members of the court as follows: Kathy Plyler, Melia Reddinger, Diane Crissman, Linda Brown, Randy Hopper, Doug Tyger, Russ Hinderliter, and Rod Huffman. Afterwards the Seniors held a less-formal dance at the Catholic Rec Hall which lasted until 5 — a night-and-a-half to remember for everyone.

They don't make those tux ties like they use to.

Here fishy, fishy . . .

Hup, 2, 3, 4!!

I wonder if my slip is showing.

Eat your heart out, boys!

Fashion Show

On May 15, 1973 the home economics department hosted its annual Art and Fashion Show with a tea held beforehand. The theme of the show was "It's Sew Easy" which the girls demonstrated by the professional appearance of their garments. Entertainment was provided by three guitarists — Keri Caldwell, Marty Sayers, Josie McMillan and a soloist, Susan Campbell. The 1973 show drew a good turnout.

Just look at those Green Bay Packer shoulders!

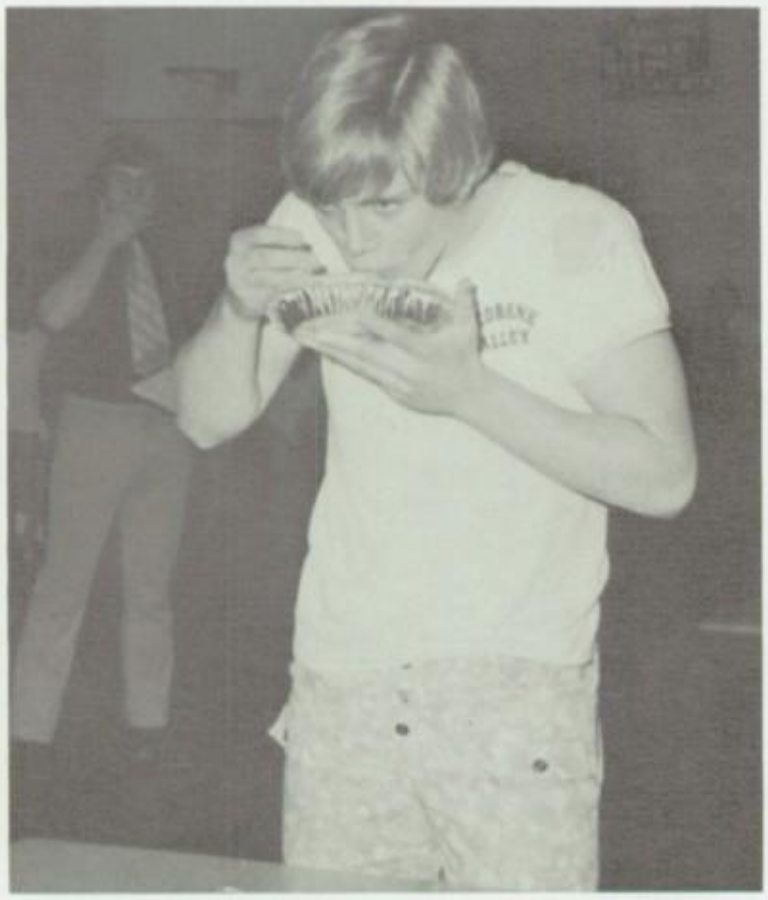
Mrs. Andrews wouldn't let us make them any shorter.

ATTENTION!

Bulldog Olympics

Wanna drag?

I think I'll trade. I like the yellow ones better anyway.



Yummy, yummy, yummy, raisin pie in my tummy.

I'll never eat another banana as long as I live.

I could have sworn I heard a peep.

The Student Council tried something new this year to make school more enjoyable — The Bulldog Olympics — and it worked. The whole school was gathered in the gym, seated by classes, and the contests began between the representatives of each grade. Some of the contests were in pie-eating, balloon blowing-and-bursting, egg rolling, tire races and the highlight of the day which was a banana eating race. Scores were totaled at the end of the olympics when the Seniors took first place and received a trophy.

Pin that !?&#! (other fellow).

Coach of the Year

Mr. Ben Kundick was honored at the District Wrestling Tourney in Clarion by being chosen as the 1973 "Coach of the Year". This is only the third year that the coaches have given an award and Mr. Kundick was picked from among 16 other schools. He has been head coach for four years at Redbank and was, for several years before that, an assistant coach. His record this year was 10 wins, 4 losses. Redbank is proud of Ben Kundick and we appreciate the honor he has brought to our school.

Now . . . boys . . .

1973 — It Was a Very Good Year.

School was a lot of things to us this year — books, classes, study halls, teachers, browned beef and gravy . . . We'll remember everything about Redbank for awhile, but one thing will stay forever — our friends. In friendship there is sadness and happiness and laughter and fear. Education may be Redbank's goal, but friendship is it's most important function. Save some good times of 1973, and remember.

Hey, he looks like me.

How do you set this thing up?

He sure is a cute little devil.

The emmy award winners of "Lemonade Joe".

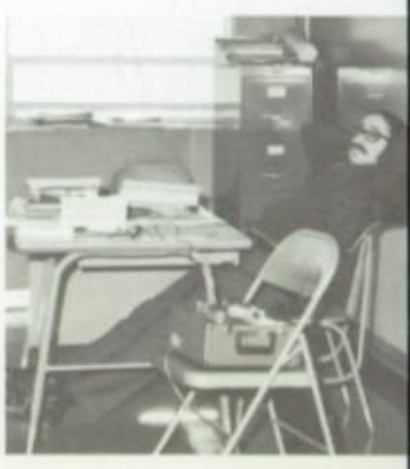
Hey, guy, watch my eyes.

A rock singer talks to some Redbank students.

A game warden speaks to the students about snakes.

Why don't we jive on down to Richard's office?

Mr. White lets his tape recorder take over his job.



Are you addressing ME, sir?

The annual Mark Twain day "jumping frog" contest.

Half time at a Friday night football game.

Do you see what I see?

Look at all that action out there on the field.

Dibbsey is a meanie!

The cast of "Lemonade Joe" the junior high dramatics production.

That was a good Polack joke.

Part of the Christmas assembly: Darlene reads Bible verses to Candi.

We're just fairly good friends.

Chuckie Boyles — what a body!

Well, Hi, Mr. Krepp.

Don't shoot me, I'm only the piano player.

1950's cheerleaders at a football pep rally.

Don't we dress real fine.

Take a gander at that leg; hubba, hubba.

Joni Sarakon congratulates the new student council president, Dave Bish.

The scratched-up, empty, old halls at Redbank.

Keep the corners of your mouth turned up
Speak in a low, persuasive tone
Listen, be teachable
Laugh at good stories and learn to tell them
For as long as you are green,
Brother,
You can grow.
(Godspell)

Retiring Teachers

Two teachers are retiring this year who have been with us for as long as we can remember. It will be strange not to watch "Franklin to Frost" in Mrs. Lower's English classes or translate "Passe Partouts" in Mrs. Dovenspike's French classes. We will always keep a spot in our memories for these two teachers.

Mrs. Caldwell hands a gift to Iola Dovenspike. Marie Lower is on the left.

To Marie

Marie was handed eleventh grade
To teach American Lit;
You who know sixteen-year-olds
Will admire Marie's true grit.

Besides her English work,
she had
A lot to do at home;
Although she likes to travel
lots,
There wasn't time to roam.

She likes good books and golf and bridge;
She'll now have leisure hours
For visiting her two grandchildren,
For shopping, and for flowers.

And so we say, "So long, Marie";
We hate to see you go,
You can "walk to a different
drummer" now,
According to Thoreau.

To Iola

Iola's life would really make
A fascinating book;
And if you don't believe us,
Let's take a short, brief look.

Care to read some Latin?
She knows her HIC, HAEC, HOC's.
Care to laugh a little while?
She has a thousand jokes.

Want to hunt a big wild buck?
Her aim with gun is steady.
Want to sew, or hammer wood?
Her tools are always ready.

Care to write some poetry?
She knows just how to start.
Care to tell her all your woes?
She'll take them to her heart.

Care to visit the land of France?
She'll take you through the books.
Want to know how to handle kids?
She's a master at hard looks.

There's no one like Iola
For versatility;
You name it, she can do it
With great facility.

And now we come to say
AU REVOIR
To someone who can meet
The ups and downs of human life
And never admit defeat.

We wish her lots of leisure
To live it up a while;
We hope that we can imitate
Her noble, happy style.

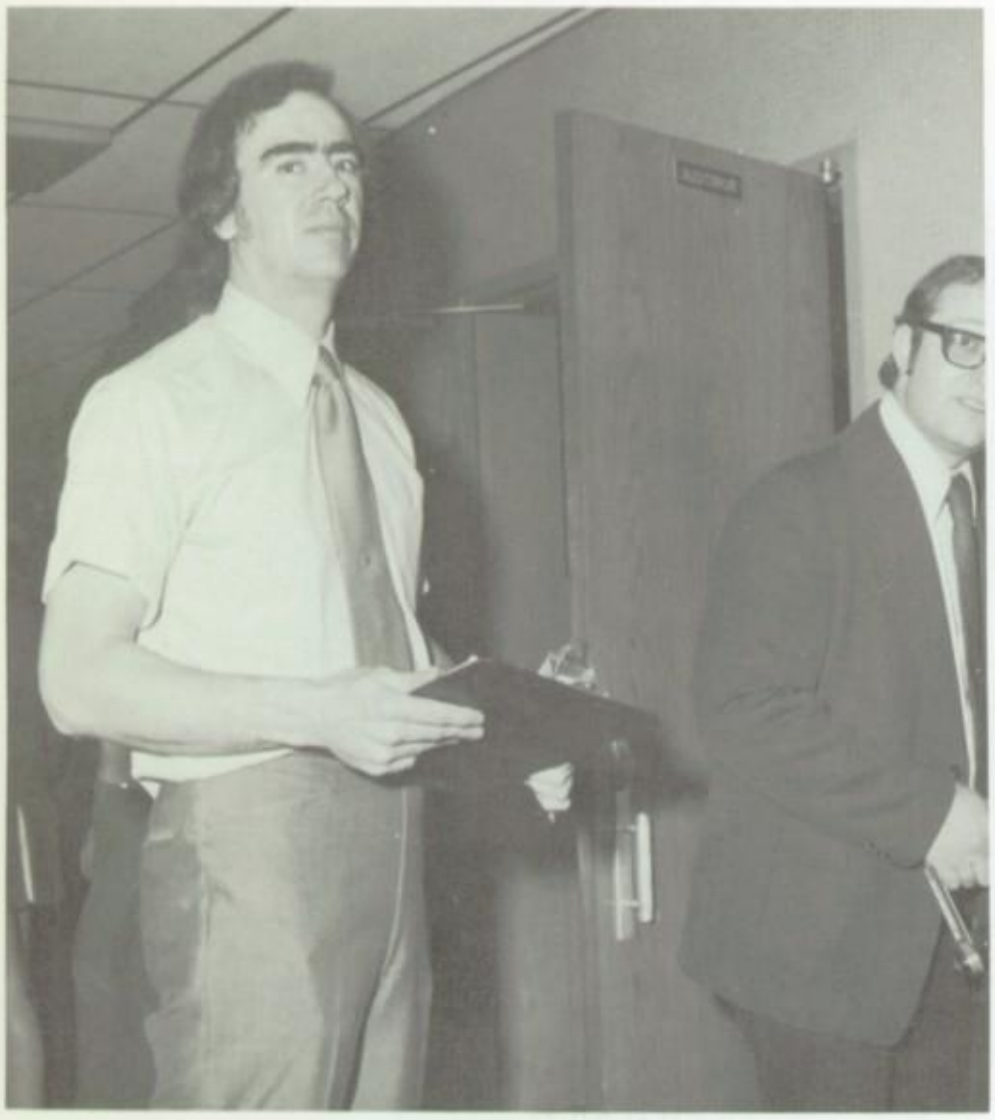
In Appreciation



Mr. Long, our advisor, and Mr. Carrier, our yearbook photographer.

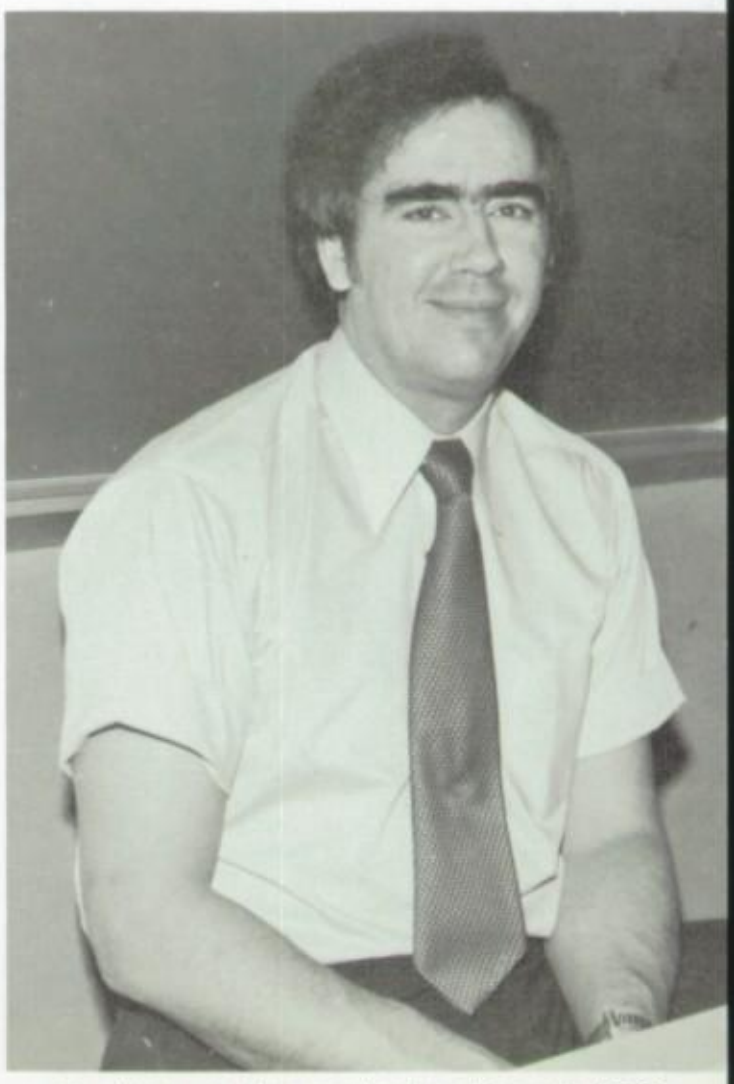
Mr. Long, busy as usual.

When Mr. Long took over the yearbook in 1967, it was as completely new to him as it was for us this year. But he learned, just as we have, through time and mistakes and hard work. We counted on his experience a lot during the past year when we just felt like giving up or quitting. Now, we'd like to say, "thank you" for all the effort he put into our book. Thank you for taking the time and the bother. And most of all, thank you for putting up with us.

Jody & Kristi

Amidst all the confusion of every day there is still time for laughter.

Mr. Long, when he became the yearbook advisor in 1967.



Mr. Long, as the yearbook advisor in 1973.

"CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF 1973"

It's been a pleasure and a rewarding experience to serve you as your yearbook photographer.

"BEST WISHES AND CONTINUED SUCCESS IN THE FUTURE."

I've been going a long time now and along the way
I've learned some things:
You have to make the good times yourself, take the little times and
make them into big times;
and save the times that are all right for the ones that are not so good . . . (Rod McKuen)
Look ahead with longing, but look back with love.
